

James Gustason

May 16, 1935 - October 21, 2020

Gustason, James Steven "Jim" age 85, of Eden Prairie, formerly Rogers, passed away on October 21, 2020. Jim was born on May 16, 1935 to Harold and Mildred Gustason. Jim graduated from Edison High School and earned a BA in economics from St. Olaf College where he met Carol Lauffs. Together they celebrated 62 years of marriage and raised two children in Brooklyn Center. Jim owned a successful paint and wallpaper business and spent many weekends on Clearwater Lake where he loved to golf, fish, play cards, and give treats to all of the dogs in his life. His extraordinary kindness, grace, and sense of humor will be deeply missed by his wife, Carol; his children, Linda (James) Mork and Bradley (Pam) Gustason; his grandchildren, Matthew and Kyle Redelsheimer, William and Ryan Mork, and Aleecia Pool; as well as the many friends he developed over his lifetime. Private interment at a later date. Jim's family would like to thank the staff at The Waters of Eden Prairie and Fairview Hospice for the compassionate care they provided. Memorials preferred to Minnesota Nongame Wildlife Program.

“ I have just discovered Jim has passed away through a google search and have fond memories working with him at Gustason's Paint & Wallpaper in the New Hope shopping center. He was one of the nicest men I have ever been associated with, God bless.
