

James Randell Hokanson

September 3, 1941 - March 17, 2022

Hokanson "HOKE", James Randell age 80 of Victoria, MN died peacefully 3-17-2022 from complications of a stroke leaving behind so many who loved him dearly. Preceded in death by parents, Ran & Alice and sister Darlene, survived by sister Beverly, wife Mary, daughter Deborah (Mark), son Jon (Kris), 9 grandchildren and 3 expected great-grandchildren. Time spent with his family was most cherished and we thank him for all the fond memories which we will treasure forever. We will never forget his acts of kindness. Jim worked at Cloverleaf/Kemps from high school to retirement ending his career as Vice President of National Sales. Jim loved golf and played at Minneapolis Golf Club over 50 years then Island View Waconia his final years. Khaki Bermuda shorts and a colorful golf shirt were his favorites year-round and appropriate dress for the funeral. Until we meet again may the LORD hold you in the palm of His hand and rest in His eternal peace. A celebration of life will be held Monday, May 23rd at 2:00 at Wooddale Church, Eden Prairie with fellowship and his favorite, ice cream, following the service. Memorials preferred to Camp Shamineau.
