“ My memories of your Dad (and Mom) are many all positive. Always the twinkle in Mr. Lockers eyes and how he escorted me into the room as retiring Honored Queen. I miss them both. For some reason I was searching for people today and found his obituary. I am so sorry for your loss.

“ Dear Locker Family,
I remember your Father and your Mother with fond memories. They always greeted me at church with their warmth and smiles such a loving couple. May you find comfort knowing they are together again in Heaven.
