“ Dear Dad, It was 41 years ago today, that your son married me at Saint Timothy's. I remember it was a nice Nov day. I also thought all of our parents were "old". Now I realize how young we all were. Yes, I was the bride in your home, thanks to you & Lou getting the basement ready for our reception, Grandpa Spicer providing the music, Joe and Mickelene were just little kids. Mary passed on a sterling silver roasting pan to me & I have been using it for 41 years now! Patty always made sure I felt welcome (you all did) but Pat was the motherly sister-in-law back in those days. As time went by, all of the Mathews became my best friends, each in their special ways. Everyone of them! I love all of you more than ever. The grace of my mother-in-law, your wife has been a life long gift to me. Just knowing she is here is comforting. I still see you, hear you and miss you as I think about days gone by. I wonder if maybe you are hanging out with my mom & dad. I miss them too. How lucky I was to have all of you. It is the Christmas season, and I know we all miss you. The family continues to grow, thanks to all those Grandchildren of yours. Watch over us Papa. I love you. JoAnn

“ I have a little story to share: In January, Jim was at Fort Snelling picking up Christmas decorations we had put there in Dec. Jim was just "hanging out" with his dad when he looked up to see a red tailed hawk flying above them. Then a flock of wild turkey's walked by and Jim turned to look as a couple deer lingered near by. God's wild animals was a silent message that day. Jim said: Well, I know dad isn't alone, with a smile. The story was touching & I wanted to share it with all of you. I also miss my dear father-in-law. I think of you & forever hold you in my heart. Love JoAnn

“ To my dearest family, some things I'd like to say...but first of all, to let you know, that I arrived okay.I'm writing this from heaven. Here I dwell with God above.Here, there's no more tears of sadness; here is just eternal love. Please do not be unhappy just because I'm out of sight. Remember that I'm with you every morning, noon and night. That day I had to leave you when my life on earth was through, God picked me up and hugged me and He said, "I welcome you." It's good to have you back again; you were missed while you were gone.As for your dearest family, they'll be here later on.I need you here badly; you're part of my plan.There's so much that we have to do, to help our mortal man. God gave me a list of things, that he wished for me to do.And foremost on the list, was to watch and care for you.And when you lie in bed at night, the day's chores put to flight.God and I are closest to you....in the middle of the night.When you think of my life on earth, and all those loving yearsbecause you are only human, they are bound to bring you tears.But do not be afraid to cry; it does relieve the pain.Remember there would be no flowers, unless there was some rain.I wish that I could tell you all that God has planned.But if I were to tell you, you wouldn't understand.But one thing is for certain, though my life on earth is o'er.I'm closer to you now, than I ever was before. There are many rocky roads ahead of you and many hills to climb;but together we can do it by taking one day at a time.It was always my philosophy and I'd like it for you too...that as you give unto the world, the world will give to you.If you can help somebody who's in sorrow and pain,then you can say to God at night....."My day was not in vain."And now I am contented....that my life has been worthwhile, knowing as I passed along the way, I made somebody smile. So if you meet somebody who is sad and feeling low, just lend a hand to pick him up, as on your way you go. When you're walking down the street, and you've got me on your mind; I'm walking in your footsteps only half a step behind. And when it's time for you to go.... from that body to be free, remember you're not going.....you're coming here to me. Ruth Ann Mahaffey (author) © Copyright 1998-2010 <http://www.ruthann1.com>

“ Dear Father-In-Law: I am proud to have been in your family for 40 plus years. You and Lou and the entire family welcomed me with open arms to your loving family. The shy girl from S.D. soon was kissing and hugging everyone like the rest of the Mathews. Perhaps this was one of the most valuable things I learned from all of you. Thank you. My memories especially take me back to Hackensack. Again, this was a first for me: "Going up North". The "hunting shack experience", was truly a gut wrenching laugh for years to come....."will you just open the flippin window", will turn down the heat then! Oh my, did I have a lot to learn. Those were the best times with family. You were truly an amazing father-in-law and proud Grandpa and Great Grandpa! Like a flock of geese, Lou never waivered from you. When a goose is injured or shot down, 2 other geese will leave the flock and go down and stay with the injured until it is okay or dies. Lou did just that. What a example of love and integrity. That is what I learned from your family. Looking at the pictures of your life, I realized what a very strong man you were from the get go. To leave home at 16 and then go to war at 17 for 4 years to fight for our freedom. Thank you James M. Mathews. As tomorrow is Veteran's Day. Thank you for all your sacrifices. I will miss you. I will never forget you. I thank you from the bottom of my heart, all I learned from you: Love and smiles, hugs, railroad stories, the cabin and the lakes, faith in the Lord, the importance of family. All your photos showed your love and pride of the Mathews family. Your big blue eyes will always shine in the sun, the sky, flowers, memories and even on a rainy day. My life was better because of you. Rest my dear father-in-law. I love you. JoAnn

“ Dear Lucille & Mathews family, You have all been in our thoughts and prayers this week. Jim is now with the Lord and at peace. He was a nice man, a good roommate for my dad at Benedictine Home, and a navy guy too (like my dad). Lucille, we will continue to keep you in our prayers as you go through this time of transition. God bless you and your entire family.

“ I stood in front of the sympathy cards and cried thinking of your great loss. Your family sets the standards for love and kindness. You are all in our thoughts and prayers as we remember years of unconditional support from you. We will miss Uncle Jim's stories told with those dancing eyes. Take care of each other and hold on tight. With great love, Karen and Jack
