“ Jim and Carlie,
Sending my sincere condolences on Jim's passing. Having lost our daughter in October I can sympathize with what you're feeling. I have long felt that parents aren't supposed to be dealing with the death of their children. Life doesn't always play fair. Please know that you're in my thoughts during these difficult days.
Sincerely,
Tom Beltt

Jim came to my son's wedding and I hugged him till my arms ached. I have loved him since we first met back in 2010. He was adorable, loving, funny, smart and the dearest friend I've ever known. I miss his laugh. I miss him saying "exactly". His fave line. I just plain miss him and know he's now making the Angels laugh.
