

James Downey O'Meara

November 2, 1954 - November 3, 2023

James (Jim) O'Meara passed away peacefully with his wife, daughters, and grandchildren by his side on Nov. 3, 2023. Jim was born in Chicago and moved to Minnesota as a child. After graduating from Burnsville High School, and the University of Minnesota, Jim went into law enforcement with the New Hope Police Department. Jim rose to the rank of Captain, graduated from the FBI National Academy, and was a founding member of the MN Chapter of the Emerald Society. After retirement, Jim embarked on a 2nd career working at Sundance Golf Club and Pheasant Acres Golf Club. Jim and Lorrie wintered in both Texas and Alabama. Jim was preceded in death by his parents, Bill and Helen; and his brothers, Dan and Tom. Jim is survived by his loving wife, Lorrie; his three daughters, Jessica (David Pabst) Bonnsetter, Alexis (Brian) Gass, and Katie Titus-Schmahl; nine grandchildren; two great-grandchildren; sister, Kathy (Greg) Jorvig; brothers, Bill (Deb Gillespie) O'Meara and Mike O'Meara; along with numerous nieces and nephews.

A visitation will be held at Washburn-McReavy Glen Haven Chapel on Friday, Nov 10th from 4-7 PM. A Memorial Service will be held on Saturday, Nov 11th, at 11 AM, with visitation beginning at 10 AM, at Lord of Life Lutheran Church in Maple Grove, MN.

“ Best memories; of course, golf. Stories are too numerous to mention, but you can bet Jim is now sharing his stories with a whole new group of golfers. Arnie, Payne, Seve, Ben and Sam; be sure to ask about Jim's 17 stroke score on Sundance's par 3 hole #2.... Forever in memory... Ken Kasten...
