

James Robert Reichow

October 19, 1930 - June 6, 2020

Reichow, James Robert "Jim" Born October 19th, 1930 in Austin, MN, died June 6th, 2020 at the age of 89 years old. The last 45 years of his life was spent living in Brooklyn Park, MN. Jim graduated from MCAD where he studied Industrial Design. In his senior year, he was honored with the Van Derlip award, the highest achievement recognized at MCAD. He was an industrial designer and world traveler all his life. He worked for many years for The Cornelius Co. where his designs and innovations won him many patents. Later in life he branched out and started his own company, and eventually even taught Industrial Design at MCAD. His retirement years were spent in more artistic pursuits - primarily sculpture and design work in support of his children's careers. He said he never viewed his work as a 'job'. He looked forward to working on his latest projects daily. Jim is survived by his wife Sharon, and his nine children: Paul, Ann, Mark (JoAnn), Elizabeth (Joel), Jennifer (Tom), Katherine, Matthew (Jean), Edward (Susie), and Charles (Janine); 20 grandchildren and 5 great-grandchildren. Jim was actively involved in the lives and accomplishments of his children and grandchildren. He always found time to attend events, participate in activities, and even spend time with them on memorable fishing trips. Memorial Services will be held at Washburn-McReavy Hillside Chapel in NE Mpls. on Friday, June 12th. Graveside service will follow the Reviewal from 11:00 AM to Noon.

“ Our deepest condolences to the Reichow family. We knew Jim briefly when he worked many years ago at the Cornelius Company in Anoka. It was a real pleasure knowing him, not only at the company, but also as part of the youth baseball activities in Brooklyn Park.

There is no doubt Jim had tremendous talent (which our father "Dick" acknowledged on many occasions). His design and style definitely made the Cornelius products stand out in the marketplace, contributing greatly to the company's success at that time.

We'll always have fond memories of Jim!
