“ Jim was not only a great friend but an incredible mentor. I have so many memories of this great man. I remember fondly the many fishing trips with Jim to the pond. Jim so loved his wife and friend Sharon. I remember fondly the trips to rainy river with Jim, Sharon, Tracy and myself. I affectionately called Jim crabby, and Sharon was the only person I saw that with one look jims crabbiness went away. As happens unfortunately in life I lost contact with Jim. But, I always knew if I was in a jam and needed honest advice Jim would answer the phone. I am going to miss you my friend.

“ We never had to guess what you were thinking or feeling, Jim. Probably THE most honest person with your feelings that we have ever met. Many good times spent growing with you and your family over the years. Still talk of the winter excursions and summer gatherings, especially the "Ottertail Experience" where Jenner dubbed you "Dipstick", which you lovingly tolerated the entire weekend. Watch over us all, our new Angel!! Your presence here will be missed!!
