“ Dear Martha (and family), In a very small way I, like my colleagues, suffered through these last months with you, all the while admiring the conscientiousness and good cheer with which you've managed your day job. You've been helping us, when you've been the one who needed support. Nothing can replace a parent and we're never ready for this loss, but you can feel at peace knowing that you did everything possible for your dad. I'm thinking of you and wish so much I could be with you on Tuesday. love, Linda
