

James J. Werbowski

May 13, 2013

Werbowski, James J. age 91, of Alexandria, formerly of Eden Prairie, passed away May 13, 2013. Jim was preceded in death by his son, James P.; parents, Fred and Caroline; siblings, John, Raymond, Ann and Walter. Survived by wife of 71+ years, May (Invie); daughters, Bonnie (Hardy) Huettl, Kathy Alana; daughter-in-law, Sharon Werbowski; 4 granddaughters, Renee (Rick) Crabtree, Cherie (Bob) Dzuik, Jamie (Jason) Bell, Tami (Alan) Pajari; his only grandson, Jeffrey (Beth) Huettl; 7 great-grandchildren; brother, Joseph (Dorothy); and many, many nieces and nephews. Jim was born in Mpls and was a first generation American. He served in the Army during WWII and was active in the American Legion and Lions for many years. He retired from the Mpls/St. Paul Airport Commission in 1983 after having a brain tumor removed. Jim suffered many strokes and if you asked how he was, he responded "just great." He never had a cross word or any complaints, always a smile. He was a loving and generous father and husband. At his request, there will be no service or memorial. He asks you to "remember me as I was the last time you saw me." Thanks to all who cared for him in his last hours at Grand Arbor and Knute Nelson Hospice. Private interment at Fort Snelling National Cemetery. www.Washburn-McReavy.com. Eden Prairie Chapel 952-975-0400
