“ I believe I can speak for those many men who learned Greek from Professor Pavel, when I say that he exemplified what he expected of his students, ARETE, which is EXCELLENCE. We rejoice with you that he has joined the heavenly throng!

“ The family is our prayers. Jan was special in so many ways. From taking bus loads of youth to Chicago to share Christ. Going to the airport to have fun with the Moonies. And most of all being in his class and learning Greek. He also covered for me when I was on disability at Mount Olive in Mound, what an experience to know him as Professor and fellow brother in the Ministry. Again my sympathy, and may you be comforted in God's peace as you say your good-byes. Rev. Tom Evans, Emanuel Luth. Ch. Inver Grove Heights.

“ DeAnne, I am saddened to hear of your father's death. A father has a special place in the hearts of his daughters. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family during this most difficult time. I am sure you have many wonderful memories and stories about your dad. Remembering each of them will always keep him close in your heart.
