Burchett, Jane Jane passed away on September 26, 2020 as a result of a stroke. Jane was preceded in death by parents, proud Polish immigrants, Greg and Mary Bownik, brothers Henry, Thaddeus and Gregory. Jane is survived by her husband of 71 years Thomas, sons Richard (Dani) Ronald (Mary) daughter Deb, grandson Chris and many nieces and nephews. Jane was Born in 1927 and grew up in northeast Minneapolis. She was a proud graduate of Edison High. In the fall of 1948 she was set up on a blind date where she met Tom Burchett. They married in June of 1949. They lived in northeast Minneapolis. They welcome their sons Richard, Ron and daughter Deb. With Tom working out of town leaving Jane as the primary caregiver for their children. In 1964 they purchased a lot in New Brighton and moved into their new home in January 1965. During this time Jane's main focus was taking of her children and helping her parents as her mother's health declined. In 1977 Tom and his brother bought out the construction company they worked for. Jane became the bookkeeper, secretary and collection specialist for the company. 1977 also brought Jane her grandson Christopher. Jane the loved traveling to conventions and visiting Richard in Louisiana. The last 11 years of her life Jane was met with one health challenge after another. During this time her relationship with her brother Greg really deepened as they supported each other through illness. Jane will be deeply missed by her family. A private family service will held at this time. We hope to have a celebration of life later. Washburn-McReavy.com Hillside Chapel 612-781-
