Jane Elizabeth (Holler) Kelley

December 10, 1950 - January 2, 2026

Jane was born to Clarence & Patricia Holler in Cloquet, MN. She passed away in Blaine, MN from Leukemia. She is survived by her husband, Greg Kelley, along with their 4 children: Casey, Megan, Brandon, and Erin. She is also survived by 5 grandchildren: Eva, Jackson, Zane, Colton, and Lorencio.

Jane was baptized as one of Jehovah's Witnesses on November 1, 1969. She enjoyed many years of teaching others about Jehovah God, and helped many people to draw close to him. She was a wonderful friend and listener, and one of her favorite things to do was to grab a coffee and chat with friends one-on-one. She was known for her tough nature, and would tell things like they were; not sugar-coated, but still with much love. This honesty drew close everyone that knew her.

“ I have spent much time at the Kelly home through the years, Jane had me do so many of the renovations at their home and we had so many great conversations of our lives growing up in the truth. We also had a lot of laughs building fences around the flower beds and doing other things to stop the deer and rabbits from eating her shrubs and plants, we jokingly called it extreme animal defense. She was serious about her landscape and plants that enhanced the beauty of her home, she had a soft and gentle nature about her I always admired! We didn't get a chance to visit as much the last few years, so looking forward to seeing her again in the resurrection! I know she will be deeply missed by family and friends. 🙏🏻🙏🏻

“ I was saddened to hear Jane passed away. My family and hers were close friends probably starting when we girls were ages 5 or 6yrs. old and going to the Pine City cong. We remained friends thru these years tho not seeing each other often enough. We always think there'll be more time. My thoughts, sympathy, and love to Greg and the family & may memories make you smile as we wait to see her healthy and happy in Paradise.

“ I met Jane when I was 14/15 years old. We worked together in the kitchen at a circuit assembly. She had recently married Greg. I thought she was beautiful. When my sister and I were 18, we had the privilege of pioneering with Jane and Greg. One day she and Greg went to a door. When they came back to the car, they were laughing. After introducing herself to the householder, she turned to Greg to introduce him, but her mind went blank. "Um ...um...this is my friend." We had a good laugh over that one. She was a great seamstress. She'd visit the stores, to see what the styles were, go home to make her own. She told us, one time she followed a gal down the street (discreetly of course) because she loved her outfit. She went home, made a pattern, and sewed her own. I was so impressed. She was talented but humble. She was always ready to help, and showed a spiritual view. I'm sad for her and her family that she's not with us anymore but eagerly look forward to welcoming her back in the resurrection.
