

Jane P. Shannon

May 19, 1923 - April 23, 2021

Age 97 of Roseville, MN

Passed away April 23, 2021

After nearly 98 years living a life filled with adventures, Jane Parks Shannon has been called to be with our Lord Jesus Christ.

She was the oldest child of Judge Clayton and Evelyn Parks, and is preceded in death by the true love of her life William R. Shannon Jr. (Bud); brothers, Clayton Jr. and Bingham, grandson, Ryan Shannon and special friend, Dr. James Little.

She is survived by children, Jane and husband Bruce Nelson, Bob Shannon and wife Anne; 7 grandchildren; 15 great grandchildren; and her beloved sister, Nanette and her husband VADM Edward Briggs and their son, Jeff. Jane was a talented artist, a great sport, and had a great sense of humor.

She was generous to a fault, and loved her family and friends beyond measure. She had a remarkably sharp mind, even to the end, had her opinions and was never afraid to voice them. Always proper and polite, beautiful inside and out. A Grand Dame in the true English Sense.

In lieu of flowers, memorials preferred to Children's Hospital of St Paul.

Private gathering for family at a later date.
