

Jane Marie Von Hagen

January 3, 1949 - September 9, 2024

Jane Marie Von Hagen was born January 3, 1949 in Fargo ND to H. Jane (Bates) Von Hagen and Gordon Von Hagen. Jane graduated from Moorhead High School and attended Moorhead State College. She moved to Richfield, MN in 1969 and started a career in accounting that continued until her retirement in 2021. She continued to live in the Twin Cities area and established a home in Bloomington MN.

She was an avid reader, a wonderful cook and always had the best patio garden in her neighborhood. She enjoyed antiques, collecting and was an artist and crafter who made many wonderful gifts for family & friends. She could always be found in the kitchen at family gatherings creating some delicious culinary delight while making everyone laugh and sharing a box of wine! She was a beloved sister, daughter and Auntie who taught us a lot about inner strength and bravery while she faced this illness (pancreatic cancer).

She had wonderful neighbors and a close circle of longtime friends who enjoyed many adventures together through the years. Jane was always there when her friends needed and they returned that so many times over in the last months of her life stepping up to help family care for her and her beloved cats Annie and Elmo. Jane will be greatly missed by all who knew her, loved her and enjoyed her fun loving spirit and positive attitude.

Jane was survived by her siblings: Robert (Barb) Von Hagen of Perham MN, Katherine Von Hagen of Coeur d'Alene ID, Elizabeth (Joe) Thielen of Park Rapids MN, Jill (Jon) Ladwig of Alexandria MN and many nieces & nephews, great nieces & nephews. She was preceded in death by her parents and brother John Von Hagen.

In her final days, Jane was cared for by the wonderful staff of the nonprofit N.C. Little Memorial Hospice house in Edina MN. If you feel so moved you can make a donation in Jane's name via the link below or by going to their website www.littlehospice.org.

“ Jane was my wonderful neighbor/friend for nearly 7 years. I miss our patio chats. We'd visit about flowers, birds, books, the neighborhood, and just life in general. She shared her vast knowledge of flowers and made sure mine were well cared for while I was traveling. We shared an excitement at the arrival of hummingbirds in the spring... and the occasional bright orange oriole. Texts would start - the hummingbirds are back! I loved her idea of having a heated birdbath out all winter so I bought one too. How lucky I was to have known Jane. She was trustworthy, generous, and kind. I sure miss her!

“ Jane was a work colleague in the 1990's who became a life-long friend. Jane was a phenomenal cook who could magically recreate a dish she had sampled dining out in her home kitchen. She regularly hosted BBQ's and holiday dinners and would generously send guests home with coveted leftovers. Jane was an incredible seamstress who created pillows, treat sniff-pads, mini-Viking footballs and catnip mice for all her friends' pets. Jane was an animal lover who adopted shelter cats; fattened squirrels who visited her patio with walnuts; filled multiple birdfeeders and kept the birdbath on her patio heated all winter. A true animal lover!!! Most of all, Jane was a generous and loyal friend who freely shared her time and talents. When it was time for Jane to need assistance, she was gracious and thankful to all who supported her. I miss you, Jane. See you in Heaven! Robin Heine

“ Jane was such a great sister, from the time we were young and throughout our lives. From garage saling to plant shopping, and being one of the most talented cooks I've had the pleasure of knowing. I love you Jane, and will miss you. Elmo and Annie will give me comfort every time I look at them.
