

Janet Emelia Erickson

January 27, 1930 - May 25, 2020

Erickson, Janet E. born January 27, 1930 in Minneapolis, passed away May 25, 2020, due to Covid-19 infection. Predeceased by parents, Arthur and Jenny Soderberg. Survived by husband John, married 67 years, and children John (Andrea), Nancy (David), Beth (Tim), six grandchildren (Erick, Christine, Alex, Elsa, John, and Bergren), and one great-grandchild (Jonas). Janet was a graduate of Minnehaha Academy and part of Minnehaha Singers, a student at Bethel College and graduate of Miller Hospital School of Nursing, a public health nurse with St. Paul Family Nursing, and a physician office nurse until the birth of their first child. Janet was a current member of Bloomington Covenant Church, with earlier memberships at First Covenant Church and Brookdale Covenant Church followed by St. James United Methodist Church in St. Petersburg, FL, where she lived from 1971 to 2003. She was particularly active in teaching Sunday School, music performance as a soloist and in church choirs, and as a hospital volunteer chaplain at Bayfront Hospital in St Petersburg. Janet moved into Covenant Living of Golden Valley in March 2004, where a celebration of her life will be held later this summer. Memorials may be directed to Covenant Living Benevolence Fund, 5800 St. Croix Ave N. Golden Valley, MN, or to the need of your choosing. washburn-mcreavy.com
