“ Janet was my Godmother and one of the kindest women I ever knew. She shared everything she had with people in need. I remember when I was in college, facing financial difficulties, I was surprised one day to find a check from Janet in the mail with a note saying that she had come into some money and wanted to help out. She simply could not refrain from helping others. She was the kind of woman who simply did not understand selfishness.

She was also an expert on dogs, dog care, and dog ownership. The dog I have now, Frankie, was selected with Janet's guidance, and Frankie has been our family's faithful friend and companion for almost ten years.
