“ Jack & kids,

I'm so sorry to hear of your loss of Janet. I have so many fond memories of gatherings with your family. Jack, it was always so fun to hear about the many vacations you and Janet enjoyed in your retirement. I pray that our God will comfort your grief and allow you to look to the hope with have in Christ that we will once again see Janet in heaven.

I know that my parents want to come up but it would be just too hard of a trip on my dad at this time.

Know that we are thinking and praying for you all during this time.
