“ This is rather after the fact, but Janet comes to mind so often these days. The last time I talked to her, around the middle of Sept. she was so worried about her sister. She was always a caring person. I spent lots of time with Janet when we were teens, but then as time went on we more or less lost track of each other. Even in these later years we lived so far from each other. She has been to my home often for club get togethers.

I am still reeling from this. It all went so fast. Because of ill health I was unable to attend her funeral, but, be assured, she'll be remembered. She loved you all dearly and you were blessed to have her in your life
