

Janis Beata Favorite

April 13, 1936 - December 16, 2023

Favorite, Janis Beata (Linsted) Age 87 of Minnetonka passed away peacefully on December 16, 2023. Survived by children, Judy (Mike) Mangum, John (Sue), Edward (Joy), Joseph (Melissa), Susan (Edmund) Hart; 11 grandchildren; 9 great-grandchildren; sister, lone (Onie) Webb; nephews, Matthew Ceryes and Benjamin Ceryes; and many more nieces and nephews. Preceded in death by husband John and grandson John Mangum. Janis was a devoted wife, mother, and grandmother who always worried more about others than herself. Janis was born in Minneapolis and graduated from St. Louis Park High School. She was queen of Jobs Daughters as a teenager. She worked at St. Louis Park Medical Center until she married John in 1957. Over the years Janis managed Jack and Jill children's clothing store and worked decades in the banking industry. She and John lived in the Glen Lake area for 55+ years and they were proud to manage the Glen Lake GAL softball league for many years. She always looked forward to bridge club with her friends. Janis was a member of the Swedish Institute and was proud of her heritage. She was creative, artistic, and kind and will be greatly missed by her family and friends. She will remain in our hearts forever. In lieu of flowers, Memorials preferred to BDSRA Foundation.
