

Janis Marie Meister

January 28, 1939 - February 26, 2022

Age 83 of Maplewood

Passed away Saturday February 26 surrounded by her family. Born in Saint Paul to Leonard and Appelonia Schotl. She attended Washington High School, St. Paul. Janis was a devoted crafter, she made doll houses, flower arrangements for every season. She was a devoted grandmother going to all their sporting events and babysitting them. She was an avid Bingo player. Survived by her 2 children, Patrick (Jodi) and Suzanne (John) Amundson; their father, Russ Meister; grandchildren, Brielle, Brett, and Blake Meister, Amelia and Parker Balfany; sister, Shirley (John) Alvarez; and nieces and nephew.

A visitation will be held Tuesday, March 8th from 3:00 - 7:00 PM at the HOLCOMB-HENRY-BOOM-PURCELL Funeral Home, 536 Snelling Ave. N., St. Paul. A special thank you to the staff of Good Samaritan Society of Maplewood for their wonderful care.

Tribute Wall

GG

“ janis was a cousin

gerald glaeve - September 15, 2023 at 12:00 AM

JW

“ My very best friend for so many years, We met when we both worked at United Electric in St. Paul. Loved her as a sister and will always have wonderful memories. So very sorry for your loss.

Jean Wells - March 03, 2022 at 12:00 AM

NP

“ We are thinking of you all during this difficult time. Sending love!

Naomi Phakeovilay - March 01, 2022 at 12:00 AM