“ Our first born child. Memories are many.

Youth Hockey. Baseball.

Moving from California with Jay in my 1953 Chevrolet 3/4 ton truck that filled the cab with burning oil fumes as we crossed the Rockies towing a trailer filled with our belongings, moving back to Minnesota. Over heating engine forced us to stop and search for water for the radiator. We had to stop at a Chevrolet dealership that fixed an oil leak in the oil pan, plus told me to hit the carburetor a good lick when the engine started missing. Stopping at a roadside rest and noticing that one of the tires was losing air. Starting out before Helen and Julie were ready to go and looking for a service station to fix the tire. Then calling local police station to ask if there had been an accident anywhere. Then backtracking back to the roadside rest and finding Helen and Julie, with no keys for our Rambler American hours later still waiting. Then stopping at a motel for one night and replacing the water pump which had failed. Water pump replacement was found at a nearby junk yard. Also parts to fix the generator which had also quit working, We made it!

Then the many fishing, hunting and camping trips with our family and friends.

His death was too soon to fulfill all his dreams.

Rest in peace Jay.
