“ I miss you so much Jay! I miss all of our e-mail conversations, of both fun and serious natures, and sharing our little jokes. It was such fun with our nicknames: You as Jaybird and me as Dee-Bee.

Someday, we'll see each again, but not yet. Until then, "May the road rise up to meet you....."

Your cousin, Deb

“ I was only 12 years old when Jay married my older sister, Vivian. I always looked up to Jay and I thought he was the coolest guy ever. He owned the coolest and fastest car ever too, a 1969 Plymouth RoadRunner with a 383 Magnum engine! I can remember when he drove his new hot car to our house for the first time and gave me a ride in it. Wow! It was fast! I remember the powerful acceleration pushing me back into the seat and the great sound of that V8 roaring wide open down the highway! I was in awe of Jay's great driving skills! Of course I was hoping I would grow up and be as cool as Jay and own a fast car like his RoadRunner! Jay was the best brother-in-law a guy could ask for and I have the sweetest memories of him. It was very difficult to see his health deteriorate in the last few years because he was always exceptionally strong and healthy. He was a great husband, dad and grandpa and his family meant the world to him. Jay was just an all around great guy. He will be sorely missed! When I get to Heaven, I fully expect Jay to show up in the coolest and fastest ride ever! I'm looking forward to that day! Well done Jay! Your kids and grand kids are carrying on your legacy.

“ Jay was one of the first people I met at Quality Ingredients. He started there about a month before I did. He amazed me with his energy and dedication to his job. He kept the cleanest, neatest warehouse ever, and took great pride in his work. I will always remember Jay for his sense of humor, his kindness, and his willingness to help get a job done - and done right. He spoke at length about his wonderful family - he loved all of you very much. My heart goes out to all of you; he will be missed.

“ What a fun, kind, and family-loving gentleman. His legacy is the family he and Viv built together. We are so happy at the love, acceptance, and friendship he gave our son, Jeremy, when he married Jay's daughter, Heidi. Rest easy, kind soul. Well done. Cathy and Steve Cammack
