“ Jean would always make my mother a plate of cookies at Christmas at Sears or the house & she would always send me pictures after going to Ft Snelling on Memorial Day weekend showing me the flowers she had left at mom & dads graves...she was a wonderful person & always willing to do anything she could to help someone out. She was much too young. I'm sure mom was there to great her. My thoughts are with you all at this hard time. RIP

“ I am so deeply sorry for your family’s loss. I was blessed to have worked with her at Unity One for so many years.

Your mother was an incredibly strong and remarkable woman. The love she had for her family radiated through everything she did—it was powerful, unwavering, and truly inspiring. I’ve never seen someone love their husband as wholeheartedly as she loved you, Gene. The way she loved left a lasting impression on everyone around her.

She impacted my life in ways I’ll never forget. During one of the scariest moments of my life—when I had a stroke—she was the one who recognized how serious it was. She insisted the EMTs take me to the hospital, and I genuinely believe her intuition may be the reason I’m still here today. Her optimism and wisdom guided me through my recovery.

I’ll never forget my first day back at work—she cheered out loud when I successfully counted back $100 to a member, then we all laughed. She celebrated my victories, no matter how small, and she also held me accountable when I started to falter. She could always sense when I was struggling, and she had this way of gently reminding me that while it may not have been my time to go, perhaps life was trying to tell me something.

She was more than a friend—she was a guiding light, a fierce supporter, and someone who helped shape the way I face life’s challenges. Her legacy of strength, love, and insight will continue to live on in all of us who were lucky enough to know her.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss. Jeanmarie was a beautiful soul, who made the world a better place. I have so many great memories of her. As a tiny girl walking her boston terrier Moco, how smart and funny she was, how ALL the nuns loved her at Holy Name, getting our first apartment together, working together at Sears & sharing lots of laughs. Jean was such a giver, anyone knowing her was very lucky. I'm so sad she left this world so early. Sending you all love.
