

Jean Stevenson Haverstock

December 8, 2014

Haverstock, Jean Stevenson Age 89, of Deephaven, passed away peacefully on December 8, 2014. Survived by husband of 64 years, Jim; children, Steve (Nori), Ray (Faye); grandchildren, Christine, Jessica, Michael, Tyler and Spencer; sister, Elizabeth Dunnavan. Jean was a graduate of Northrop Collegiate School, Pine Manor College and the University of MN, where she received her bachelor's degree in Humanities. She enjoyed golf, tennis, downhill skiing, and was a great sailor. Jean loved architecture and was a remarkable designer and contractor, supervising the building of five homes. She loved gardening and growing unusual flowers for Ikebana arrangements. Jean was an active member and sang in the choir at Wayzata Community Church. Jean served on the board of directors at the YWCA. She was a member of Audubon Country Club in Naples, FL, Woodhill Country Club in Wayzata, and the Minnetonka Yacht Club. Jim and Jean enjoyed traveling. They visited Australia, New Zealand, Turkey, France, Germany, England and several of the South Sea islands, including Jamaica. Jim and Jean also enjoyed spending winters in Bonita Springs, FL. Private family services will be held. Private interment Lakewood Cemetery. Memorials preferred to Wayzata Community Church. www.Washburn-McReavy.com Edina Chapel 952-920-3996

Tribute Wall

GH

“ Dear Jim, Ray, Faye and Family:

The Cycle of Life

Thank you Jim for sending us Jean's obituary. We send you our sympathy and hope you might be cheered by news of the birth yesterday of Emmett James Haverstock to our son John and spouse Karen. May your lives overlap this new James Haverstock for many years to come.

Sincerely,

Greg and Cathy H.

Greg and Cathy Haverstock - December 24, 2014 at 02:31 PM