

Jean Faircloth Johnson

October 30, 1922 - September 20, 2015

Age 92 of Roseville. Died September 20, 2015. Preceded in death by her husband, George. Survived by her sons, Mark (April) and Paul (Kaydi); grandchildren, Elizabeth (Jordan) Wagner, Caleb (Aubrey), Joshua, Jedidiah and Daniel; siblings, Sam (Betty) Faircloth, Doris Hansen, Rich (Melva) Faircloth and Miriam (Marlin) Peterson. Before dedicating her time to raising her two boys, Jean taught 6th grade for 15 years. She was devoted to Jesus, her husband, sons and grandchildren. Funeral service 11AM Friday, September 25 (visitation begins at 10AM) at CALVARY CHURCH, 2120 Lexington Ave. N., Roseville. Interment Incarnation Cemetery. Memorials preferred to Timber Bay.

Tribute Wall

LD

“ Aunt Jeannie was an amazing aunt! I have so many wonderful memories of her growing up. She was one of the reasons I became a teacher! You were blessed with an awesome mom. She is "home" with Uncle George now. Love to you, Linda and Roger

Linda Dee - September 22, 2015 at 12:00 AM

TF

“ She was a neat person. I remember her red Corvair and her dachshund Gretchen.

Tom Faircloth - September 22, 2015 at 12:00 AM