

Mrs. Jean Ann Peterson

January 18, 1917 - October 30, 2018

Peterson, Jean A. 101 years, of Edina, passed away October 30, 2018. Preceded in death by her husband, P. Kenneth Peterson. Survived by three daughters and five grandchildren. Jean grew up in St. Paul and became Executive Secretary to three Minnesota Governors. She was an exceptional athlete, participating in golf and competing in speed skating and tennis. She married and moved to Minneapolis and later to Edina. Faith, family, forgiveness and love were guiding principles. A wonderful hostess and fabulous cook, she loved to entertain. She also loved dogs, travel and bridge. Jean enjoyed remarkable health and never suffered illness or needed prescriptions. She was about two months shy of turning 102 years old. Her best medicine was her quick wit and engaging laughter. Most importantly, Jean had a strong Christian faith and often recited Psalm 23 by heart. Her family is thankful for the wonderful staff at Walker Edina Care Suites. Godspeed good and faithful servant. Memorials: KE Peterson Scholarship Fund at Minnehaha Academy and The Salvation Army.
