“ I still wake up every morning thinking... I'm going to see Grandma today and then it hits me, no I'm not. You're not there. I don't get to go and see you today. You are watching over us from the other side. I hope your party never ends. Thank you for everything, we love you and miss you every minute of every day.

“ Mom, even though I know you are gone, I still feel you are with me. I feel so relieved that you are no longer in pain. You were so brave and strong that I can only hope you passed that on to me. You will be missed by so many people here on Earth. Please enjoy being reunited with your family and friends in Heaven, whom you have missed for so long. I will see you there later...Love you forever.

“ Farewell to my Gram(grandma)Jeanne. She babysat me when I was little and treated me like a granddaughter. I sure will miss her. I stayed with her through Christmas and New Years for many years growing up. Sure do wish we could have spent more time together.. Love always. Teresa

“ I spent a weekend at Jeanne's house way back in 1970 when I was 15. I am Guy Wellner's sister-in-law. We went to the Hamms brewery, the zoo and a baseball game. I felt very welcomed by her and the family. She was a lovely lady and I'm sure she will be very much missed by all who loved her. My condolences to you all. Bobbie
