

Jeanne Hannah Huff

October 13, 1940 - December 4, 2024

Jeanne Hannah Huff, age 84, was called (received her wings) to her final home in heaven on December 4, 2024 after a five year courageous battle with dementia. She passed away peacefully at home.

Jeanne was born in Albert Lea, Minnesota on October 13, 1940, the third child of Christ and Lois Broskoff. She moved to Minneapolis after completing high school in 1958 in search of better employment opportunities, there she met and married General (GW) Whitfield (deceased) in 1960, together they had 7 children. She later met and married Charles Huff on April 16, 1977.

Jeanne was a 1958 graduate of Albert Lea High School. She and Charles were the proud owners of Huff's Daycare, where they cared for 20 or more children daily. During her career she worked and supervised at several large Minnesota companies such as; Old Dutch, Shamrock, and Control Data Incorporated.

As a devout Christian, Jeanne attended and served at Trinity First Lutheran of Minneapolis for over 40 years. She was a dedicated wife and proud homemaker, a woman with a generous - loving heart, who gave her absolute best to her children and grandchildren by being an exemplary model of integrity, hard work, devotion to family and unconditional love. Jeanne's incredible legacy will live on forever in the lives of all she touched.

Jeanne was preceded in death by her father Christ Broskoff, her mother Lois Bull, her sisters: Helen Espe and Ruth Beighley, her brother Robert Broskoff, her daughter Dawn Whitfield and son Demetrius Whitfield.

She leaves to cherish her memory, husband Charles Huff, brother Frank Broskoff of Boca Raton Florida, sons: Duane (Pauline) Whitfield, Douglas Whitfield, Darrin Whitfield, Dackary Whitfield and daughter Dana Jackson, step son's Larry Huff and Michael Huff, 20+ grand - great grandchildren and a host of cousins, nephews, nieces, brother-in-law Jack Beighley, sister-in-law Sherry Broskoff and friends.
