“ Jeff was my first and best friend when I moved to Eden Prairie. We became inseperable friends for life and were truly brothers. I will never forget Jeffery. My fearless friend. The images of Jeff doing backflips off of the swings at starring lake park from impossible heights or making huge jumps on Marcus Engstroms motocross bike. Those sights will be forever burned into my mind! My brother Jeff came to live with my family during some bad times in his life and we welcomed him with open arms. My father loved Jeffrey and was a mentor to him. Jeffery frequently called my mother even to this year and would talk with her about times both old and new. I last saw Jeffery two years ago when he came to Georgia to visit and go to bike week in Daytona. I had an extra motorcycle for him and we finally got to ride together. If I had known it was the last time I would see him om this earth I would have never let him on the flight home. Jeffery was a kind and loving soul that was always helping others and was completely selfless. I know that I will see my brother Jeffery again as sure as I know that nothing can seperate us from Christ's love. I pray.....Almighty God,now please take back the soul of my brother Jeffery James,Coleman. We all loved him. He was not ours,he was not mine.

GOD SPEED!.....Craig Darby

“ Jeff, if you only knew how much you are loved and how deeply you will be missed! I will miss your infectious smile and singing that could like up the shop and make the day brighter. You were one of the kindest persons I knew. You were a great friend. You will live on forever in our hearts. Love, Josie

“ Reason, Season, or Lifetime

*People come into your life for a reason, a season or a lifetime.
When you figure out which one it is,
you will know what to do for each person.*

*When someone is in your life for a REASON, it is usually to meet a need you have expressed.
They have come to assist you through a difficulty;
to provide you with guidance and support;
to aid you physically, emotionally or spiritually.
They may seem like a godsend, and they are.
They are there for the reason you need them to be.*

Then, without any wrongdoing on your part or at an inconvenient time, this person will say or do something to bring the relationship to an end.

*Sometimes they die. Sometimes they walk away.
Sometimes they act up and force you to take a stand.
What we must realize is that our need has been met, our desire fulfilled; their work is done.
The prayer you sent up has been answered and now it is time to move on.*

*Some people come into your life for a SEASON,
because your turn has come to share, grow or learn.
They bring you an experience of peace or make you laugh.
They may teach you something you have never done.
They usually give you an unbelievable amount of joy.
Believe it. It is real. But only for a season.*

LIFETIME relationships teach you lifetime lessons; things you must build upon in order to have a solid emotional foundation.

Your job is to accept the lesson, love the person, *and put what you have learned to use in all other relationships and areas of your life.

It is said that love is blind but friendship is clairvoyant.*

“ Jeff my dear friend, I had the great pleasure of meeting you 14 years ago. In that time we became great friends in and out of work. You always had a listening ear and a good laugh to get us through the day. You introduced me to my beautiful fiance and three kids, and for that I will forever be grateful to you. You will be greatly missed by myself, my family and all the guys and gal at Superior Material Handling (SMH). RIP Jeff Coleman, one day we will meet again my friend.

*Love,
Jim Lindsay*

I remember meeting Jeff in 9th grade art class...we remained friends after high school and throughout this life...he was my best friend of 30 years...my roommate forever and sometimes a "role model".. REALLY! He was my "go-to" person for many of years..I will always remember the good advice and the not-so-good advice of his . I will miss him immensely and will treasure his kind heart and warm soul.

Love you Jeffery James...RIP

“ ALTHOUGH SINCE I MOVED TO INDY JEFF AND I WERENT AS CLOSE AS BACK IN THE DAY, BUT HE WAS AND ALWAYS WILL BE MY BROTHER.. WE HAD SOME OF THE BEST TIMES BACK IN SCHOOL DAYS,AND THOSE MEMORIES ARE FOREVER IN MY HEART.. HE HAD THIS WAY ABOUT HIM THAT MADE EVERYONE LOVE HIM.. HIS LAUGH WAS SO AWESOME AND SO CONTAGIOUS,NOONE IN THE ROOM COULD KEEP A STRAIGHT FACE IF HE LAUGHED.. I HOPE HE FOUND HIS PEACE OUT OF THIS CRAZY WORLD,AND I WILL SEE HIM AGAIN ON THE OTHER SIDE 1 DAY.. I LOVE YOU JEFF.. AND ALWAYS WILL. R.I.P. MR. FUNNY MAN!!

“ Jeff from the day we met so many years ago to the last days here you were my my family, we played ,worked , even disagreed on things you were a brother to me as I was to you. The world has lost a person that can never be replaced , you are free now . There will come a day that we will meet again until that day I will miss you my friend.

I love you Jeff may you Rest In Peace...

“ It was with deep sadness that I learned of Jeff's passing. I haven't seen Jeff in many years, but will always remember him as a bright, warm and wonderful man. He could always make me laugh, I remember how contagious his laughter was. My heart goes out to his family and friends. Jeff will be missed but never forgotten.
