In Loving Memory of Jeffrey Joel Christensen

January 4, 1953 - June 30, 2025

Jeffrey Joel Christensen, age 72, passed away peacefully on June 30, 2025, after a brief illness.

Born in Minneapolis to Joe and LaVonne Christensen, Jeff dedicated his career to leading Banyon Data Systems with integrity and vision. He was a beloved father, life partner, brother, and friend who enjoyed travel, red wine, golfing, and time with family and friends.

He is survived by his daughter Madison (fiancé Jake), son Landon, cherished life partner, Marcia Baran, brother David (Yvette), nephew Tayler and nieces Breanna (Josh) and Danyell (Brandon). He is preceded in death by his parents, Joseph and LaVonne Christensen. Jeff will be deeply missed and lovingly remembered by all the lives he enriched.

A Celebration of Life will be held on Sunday, August 24, 2025, at 1:00 PM at Chomonix Golf Course, 700 Aqua Lane, Lino Lakes, MN. Friends and family are warmly invited to gather in honor of Jeff's life and share memories of the joy, kindness, and laughter he brought to so many.

The family appreciates your prayers and support during this time.

“ Jeff was a great conversationalist. I met Jeff when our family visited my mother at the nursing home. It was like growing up in Fridley all over again. This pleased my mother.
Jeff was a wonderful host when we gathered at Marcia and Jeff's home to celebrate holidays.
Jeff even became a devoted pet parent to Loki, the cat.
Gone too soon but never forgotten.
