“ I met Jeff about 1982 or so while I was living in downtown Minneapolis, and as I recall he was the first policeman I met while asking for directions. Behind his sometimes tough police exterior was a gentle man with a killer grin and pride in his work. Back in 1992 I needed verification of a situation that occurred in St. Paul, and with one phone call Jeff was able to help me with ease. It is things like this that made Jeff him someone I'm proud to call Friend. Rest In Peace, Judy from Minneapolis
