

Jeffrey Errol Judy

October 27, 1946 - March 3, 2019

Jeff Judy passed away, at home, on March 3, 2019. A former Marine, Jeff deployed a gung ho attitude to every aspect of his life. Big and loud, he wasn't one to blend into the background. Perhaps that is why he ended up in front of the seminar room as one of the banking industry's most effective and most popular training consultants.

Born and raised in the small farm community of Hampton, Iowa, he traveled the world, taking special pleasure from trips with his daughters, in recent years, to several exotic locations.

When asked for a word that would describe his life, Jeff responded with "blessed." He was deeply grateful for the life lessons he learned from others, starting in his boyhood when his family parents D.E. and Mary (Carter) and brother, Brad gave him love, support, and much-needed guidance at times.

He continued learning in college, where he acquired a lifelong passion for history; in the Marines, who taught him he could do more than he ever thought he could; from his work colleagues who led him to make the banking industry his business home for nearly fifty years; from his teammates in his twenty years of service as a volunteer firefighter; and from his clients, who encouraged him as he honed his craft.

Jeff always felt that he took life as it came, without a lot of planning, only to be repeatedly and pleasantly surprised at the experiences and opportunities that dropped in his lap. His greatest blessing, his own family, grew out of a birthday dinner with his future wife, Judy (yes, Judy Judy!), to bring him three wonderful daughters, Sara (Jon), Alicia, and Melissa, and grandsons Jonathan and Connor. Jeff is looking forward to seeing Judy again.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I will miss Jeff and his stories at PCBS. He was so kind and generous to me, especially when I was new to the faculty. A true gentle giant.

“ I was so sorry to read of Jeff's passing...he was such a gentle giant! I had the privilege of working with him at the Bloomington Chamber of Commerce and their Leadership Bloomington program back in the early 90s. I was just a new college graduate and he was always so kind, helpful, encouraging. Always smiling. I'm sorry for your loss - he was a terrific man and I remember him fondly.

“ Favorite Redheads:
I am so sorry about the loss of your beloved patriarch.
On the darkest days, when you are feeling down,
remember whose daughters you are and straighten your crowns!
Continue to make him proud.
Love you all~
