“ Dear Jeff, I just wanted to write a few lines to let you know Skye had a beautiful Christmas with her family and Bobby. She kept talking about you the whole week, she brought up such beautiful memory's of her Daddy. She miss's you so much, and it left such a open hole in her little heart, she went to visit Santa Claus and told Mommy she was going to ask Santa to bring you back to her again for Christmas. Santa told her his elves told him about her Daddy, and wanted her to know he is now an Angel and is with God in Heaven but he will always be watching over her, and he loves her so much.... she had the biggest smile when she heard this from Santa... We will always show her pictures and talk to her about you, so she never loses the image of you.. Rest in Peace Jeff... We miss you more than you ever even realized.

“ Skye is missing you so much. She has such a hole in her little heart. It is so painful to see her grieve. I cannot believe you are gone Jeffrey. You became my best friend and I don't know what to do without you in our lives. I promise to keep you alive in our baby's heart. I will never let your memory fade. She has a hard time even talking about you right now, but I will help her stay strong. I know you are watching over her every day. We have seen the many rainbow's you have sent and the ones you placed over her were the most beautiful sign that you are watching over her. Thank you for giving me this precious little girl. Thank you for spending your entire adult life bringing me the most happiness I have ever known. I have loved you since the day I met you and I will forever. There are so many regret's I have. I wish you knew that I held you deep in my heart and never let that go. I will keep you in my heart and in the hearts of my children forever. Alex and Bailey are having such a hard time now, they don't remember a time when you weren't in their lives. Alex loved you like her own Daddy when she didn't have one. Bailey looked up to you as his father figure. Those shoes of yours are so hard to fill. I can't believe you are gone. I keep wanting to bring Skye over to her daddy. How am I supposed to do this alone Jeff? We were such a good team. Now what? Keep watching over her Jeffrey. I keep thinking she is starting Kindergarten this year and her Daddy wont be there to walk her to the door, but you will be. I know you will be there every step of the way. I just wish I had you at my side once again. We love you so much. We miss you so much. We want you back so bad. God took the best Daddy in the whole world, but we will be together again someday. Skye says we are going to be in Heaven together, and everything is golden there. I tell her not too soon though because Mommy needs you here. She asked me why we couldn't just put knives in ourselves so we can all just be together again. I told her we can't do that or we wont be able to see our Angel ever again. Help me keep her safe Jeffrey. I love you. Every minute of every day you are on my mind. I know it will never get better, no matter how many people say it just takes time. It doesn't. You just learn to adjust your life to accomidate the pain, you don't get over it. I miss your big dimpled smile, that brought light to my day. I miss the times I laughed at you cuz you fell down the stairs or under the car. I miss the way you took longer to get ready and do your hair than me! I miss our epic fights, and sweet make ups. I miss the way you smell. I miss the sound of your voice. I miss the rain. I miss our little secrets, we never did tell. I miss you. The good and the bad and everything in between. I Love You "Forever and a Day"!!! Sug “ Rounsville, Reynolds, Bushelle, and other family members, Pot of Gold family, today we said good-bye to a wonderful man, loving father, brother, son, cousin and friend. Jeff's spirit has joined with others that have passed before him, and one day if we're lucky we will join him too. Sugar, Skye, Betty, Jeffrey, and the rest of this amazing family, thank you for sharing Jeff with his extended bingo family. Bobby, you have lost your best friend, no words will bring him back, but you will always have your memories of Jeff. We may not have known him as long as some of you, but knowing Jeff for a moment, you knew him for a lifetime. You knew you were special in his eyes, you knew he cared about you from day one. We were all blessed by knowing him, and in a way I feel we are duty bound to pass along our memories of him to others. May God shine His brightest light into your darker hours, and may He bless you in your better days.

“ Skye, Sugar, and family of Jeff. Honestly I didn't put the name with the face, now I have and all who knew Jeff have lost a dear, sweet fella. I haven't seen or spoke to him in years years , what a loving man. Anyone who knew Jeff was Blessed for sure. God now has another angel. Skye when your'e at the park think of 'daddy' and know he loves you and alway's will. Before you go to bed at night, have mom or granny take you outside to pick out a star / that star will light your way because 'daddy' will be shining down on you alway's. RIP Jeff

“ Jeffrey, my brother bear. I can't even express how deeply hurt I am that I no longer have you. You were such a wonderful person, everyone loved you. how couldnt they? you were the most fun to be around. you could always make me laugh even when i was having the hardest day. God only takes the GREAT ones young. I still can't believe you're gone. I love you so much, Bubba. More than you will ever know. I guess grandma couldn't wait any longer to have you with her. That is the only thing that comforts me is knowing youre with grandma. I will love you and miss you more than you will ever know. Love, Maria (Your Sugar Bear)

“Bub, every single childhood memory I have involves you. We were only six weeks apart, and you were my brother for many years. You taught me to fight, because in this family you had to be a survivor. You carried me broken and bloody when I crashed my bike. You beat up any boy that tried to ask me out, quite literally. You protected me for years, but that's how you were, you loved unconditionally. We all know how selfish that grandma was, we all needed you here, but she needed you to...and she always won because you couldn't go against her wishes. I love you, please watch over Skye, your family and all of your friends as they mend their broken hearts. Do not stand at my grave and weep I am not there. I do not sleep. I am a thousand winds that blow. I am the diamond glints on snow. I am the sunlight on ripened grain. I am the gentle autumn rain. When you awaken in the morning's hush I am the swift uplifting rush. Of quiet birds in circled flight. I am the soft stars that shine at night. Do not stand at my grave and cry; I am not there. I did not die.

“ No words could express the pain Skye, Alex, Bailey, Sugar have gone thru. It's going to be so hard on Skye today. Grandpa Jeff, please stay in Skye's life, she will need you more than ever. This is going to be so hard on Skye tonight.. She's been throwing up last night again...had to take her out of that banquet and bring her home. Then the saddest thing she said I can't go to the park I am too sick, my stomach hurts.. I said we won't go to the park, we'll go tomorrow... she threw up again and then said I have to go to the park now.. I said NO let's wait until tomorrow..then she said...NO when I was with my dad he always took me to the park every time... He wants me there right now... I have to go granny and started to cry. So I took her over there... she played a little bit, she looked up in the Skye and said somethng, then said I have to go back now, I'm sick Granny..RIP Jeff

“ I can't express how deeply my heart aches, especially for Skye, as Jeffrey was taken way to soon. He was the best dad in the world and loved Skye more than anything. I guess Grandma couldn't wait any longer to have Bubba sitting at her side (she did always get what she wanted). He is with many loved ones now though, entertaining them. You couldn't help but laugh when you were around him. I will very much miss my Bubba Louie everyday... Especially when it storms...

“ To Skye and Sugar, Jeff was my buddy. He was a good man and an excellent Daddy. I was truly in shock when I heard the news. GONE TOO SOON, that is what has happened. Skye, Daddy is gone only because God needed him up in heaven with him. Always remember what he was to you and not what others may say or think. You have been blessed to have had such a good, nice man to be your Dad. We will all truly miss him. Be Blessed.
