

Jennie Helen Markow

January 4, 1931 - October 7, 2024

Jennie Helena Heick Markow, age 93, born in Peterson, Iowa to Peter Heick and Annabelle Zimmerman Heick. Peter's parents came from Denmark and spoke Danish. Jennie had fond memories of piling all the kids in the car at Christmas to go to her Danish grandparents in Spencer attending the Lutheran church there. Jennie's mom's family were traced back to the Jamestown colony. Her mom Annabelle grew up in Cainsville, MO area. Jennie grew up on a farm on the Little Sioux River in Peterson, IA. She started school in a one room schoolhouse. She went to Omaha to study business, living with sister Rosie. She became a bookkeeper. She met Don on a Greyhound bus as he was traveling in the Navy where he was stationed in San Diego. She moved to MN to marry Don after his enlistment on the destroyer USS McKeon ended. She played golf for many decades with her group of women. She loved to travel, play cribbage and dominoes. She passed away at her home in Sun City, AZ on October 7, 2024 Preceded in death by parents, Peter and Anna Heick; brothers, Donnie, Ray, Chuck; sisters, Mary, Rosie, Dot, Jane Ann, and son, Bruce Markow.
