“Family Angels I like to think that angels, Are loved ones who've moved on, It doesn't say this in the Bible, But, it doesn't say I'm wrong. For instance, there's my grandparents, Who went to heaven long ago, But I can sense their presence, As if they're still with us below. Sometimes when I am feeling blue, And way down in the dumps, I swear my grandma kisses me, And she's done this more than once. I hear grandpa's jolly laugh, Time and time again, And when I do, I chuckle, too, I can't help but join in. So, I know that they are angels, Who are here to keep us cheered, And I find it very comforting, To know that they are near. And there are other family members, Who have since moved on, Aunts and uncles – cousins, too Yet I know they're still around. I find myself quite frequently, Talking to them all, And it seems they all reply to me, When they hear me call. I, too, have been protected, From death and tragedy, And I know a family angel, Was looking after me. Our loved ones may pass on, But they never really go, We miss seeing, touching, feeling them, Yet they're still here, you know. We can't have a family gathering, Without including them, Angels don't need invitations, They're always welcomed in. And when the rest of us pass on, And it's our turn to bid goodbye, God will host a family banquet, At His palace in the sky. We will have a blest reunion, Like never held before, With our precious angel family, Who'll be together ever more.

We will never forget the friendly "Hi Neighbor" whenever we saw you. We remember when you got Mugsly and how he barked when he heard us come home. The neighborhood will never be the same without you in it. You will be missed our friend and Neighbor. Rest in Peace Jen! Love, AJ, Kim, and Dylan*

“ To my dearest family, some things I'd like to say...but first of all, to let you know, that I arrived okay.I'm writing this from heaven. Here I dwell with God above.Here, there's no more tears of sadness; here is just eternal love. Please do not be unhappy just because I'm out of sight. Remember that I'm with you every morning, noon and night. That day I had to leave you when my life on earth was through, God picked me up and hugged me and He said, "I welcome you." It's good to have you back again; you were missed while you were gone.As for your dearest family, they'll be here later on.I need you here badly; you're part of my plan.There's so much that we have to do, to help our mortal man. God gave me a list of things, that he wished for me to do.And foremost on the list, was to watch and care for you.And when you lie in bed at night, the day's chores put to flight.God and I are closest to you....in the middle of the night.When you think of my life on earth, and all those loving yearsbecause you are only human, they are bound to bring you tears.But do not be afraid to cry; it does relieve the pain.Remember there would be no flowers, unless there was some rain.I wish that I could tell you all that God has planned.But if I were to tell you, you wouldn't understand.But one thing is for certain, though my life on earth is o'er.I'm closer to you now, than I ever was before. There are many rocky roads ahead of you and many hills to climb;but together we can do it by taking one day at a time.It was always my philosophy and I'd like it for you too...that as you give unto the world, the world will give to you.If you can help somebody who's in sorrow and pain,then you can say to God at night....."My day was not in vain."And now I am contented....that my life has been worthwhile, knowing as I passed along the way, I made somebody smile. So if you meet somebody who is sad and feeling low, just lend a hand to pick him up, as on your way you go. When you're walking down the street, and you've got me on your mind; I'm walking in your footsteps only half a step behind. And when it's time for you to go.... from that body to be free, remember you're not going.....you're coming here to me. Ruth Ann Mahaffey (author) © Copyright 1998 <http://www.ruthann1.com>
