“ I've loved you from the moment you existed, and I will love you forever and more. You were a beautiful boy with a heart of pure gold. You loved with all of your heart. Your smile was so bright, it made your beautiful blue eyes sparkle. I miss you. I will every day. The memories I have help keep me going, and I cherish them so close to my aching heart. The tears are falling faster than the words I could ever express to say how much you meant to me. I wish I had a bottle of your laughter to help brighten my days. Knowing how much you loved me and knowing you knew how much I loved you and wanted the best for you brings me comfort. I hope you are finally at peace, my sweet boy. I will never say goodbye because you are and continue to be with me.

All my love, Mom ❤️

“ *You are my loving Son,
You're a light to my darkness and a Ray of Sunshine to my rainy day. I will always be with you through the path of this journey of life and death. God bless you my child. I love you!!!*
