“ Dear Mary and Joe, Words cannot express our sorrow at the loss of your son Jeremy. With your faith, family and friends, we pray you find the strength to accept the tragedy of Jeremy's death and take comfort in the many joys and happiness he brought you during his earthly existence. His journey here has ended. But he now is with the Lord; the result we all hope to be our reward. May God bless you and your family and bring you peace.

“ Jeremy means "Appointed by God". He was appointed for a work of love and when that work was done he was called home. We are comforted by his commitment of his life to the Lord, Jesus Christ. We look forward to seeing him again in God's eternal Kingdom. We express our condolences to his family and friends.

“ Dear Joe, Mary and family. We just heard today about Jeremy. Please know that you all are in our hearts and prayers. It's been many, many years since we last saw Jeremy, since our days at St. Pauls in the '80's. Remember, life is not measured in the amount of time spent here, but in how that time was spent. From what we've read here, Jeremy lived life with vigor and a love for others. God bless and comfort all of you during this time.

“ Uncle Joe, Aunt Mary, & Family, I am shocked and profoundly saddened as of hearing the news of Jeremy. My cousin was a beautiful soul in the prime of his life. I feel honored to have spent the little time that I did with him as we lived in different states. I remember him as a kind, thoughtful, and loving person with a beautiful smile. I wish I could be with you to help celebrate his life. Please know that you are all in my thoughts and prayers. Love to all of you. Sherri (McCarty) Ingraffia & Family

“ To the McCarty family: We remember Jeremy as loving to go to the lake, go fishing and spending time with his close friends. He was deeply committed to his family, especially his niece and nephews. We were so sorry to hear of Jeremy’s untimely death. His love for his family will live on, as your love for Jeremy will never end. Your strong faith in God will comfort you through this very difficult time.
