

Jerome "Jerry" Leffler

June 9, 2014

Leffler, Jerome "Jerry" Age 78, of Richfield, passed away unexpectedly on June 9, 2014. Born in Owatonna, MN to George and Marcella (Dusek) on October 28, 1935 Jerry was the third of six children. Upon graduation he enlisted in the U.S. Navy. He attended Hospital Corpsman & Surgical Operation school and served aboard the U.S.S. Princeton (CVS-37) Aircraft Carrier. After completing his tour he continued his education attending the Minneapolis School of Business and the University of Minnesota. Jerry found his passion working as a salesman in the pharmaceutical industry for 24 years and 21 years working for his current employer, Mueller-Yurgae (formerly Harvey-Winchell). Jerry was a proud member of the Thunderbird club. He loved old cars, car shows, cameras & photography, estate sales, going to the cabin, fishing, music, dancing, family and friends. He had an exceptional gift to gab. His kindness, generosity, caring for and taking care of others, helping any one he could was his true gift. Jerry was preceded in death by his son, Daniel; parents; niece Debbie Henry; sister Audrey. He is survived by his loving wife of 55 years, Karon, and their family: daughters: Cynthia and Sheri (Darwin) Nelson; son David (Rebecca); grandchildren: Daniel, Abbey, Nicole, Piper, and John; sisters: Connie and Betty; brothers: Chuck and John; sister-in-laws: Aleah, Linda, and Jan; nieces and nephews; the entire Tom Schwalbe family; many other family and friends by who he will dearly be missed.
