“ I was shocked and so saddened to learn of Jerry's passing as I went to Cub today .
In first getting to know him , he seemed grumpy , but he was then always so kind to me when I checked out on his lane .
He would call me “dear “
In our brief conversations he was so looking forward to his wife's retirement and traveling with her.
His love and pride for her was apparent.
He mentioned cooking for his kids and family at Christmas with a smile . Prime rib “ the works “
He made my early morning grocery runs more enjoyable and I will miss him.
I am so very sorry for your loss .

“ I actually went to cub yesterday and as usual I looked for Jerrys checkout lane. I hadn't been to cub for a while and when I didn't see him I was sad and went to the next open lane. As I was walking out of the store, I saw the memorial they had made for him. I loved seeing Jerry the mornings I went to cub. I just went through cancer treatment and he and I would always chat. I got so used to seeing him in the morning. He will be missed. He was so kind and sweet to talk to. I am so sorry for your family's loss. Prayers for you all, im just a regular cub shopper but he made a positive impact on my life.

I was honored to have him as a next door neighbor and enjoyed seeing him at Cub when I went shopping.

“ It's hard to pick 1 of the so many memories but Jerry's love for football is what I'm picking. A superbowl party Cowboys vs Bill's I believe Robbie and I were the only ones cheering for the Bill's. Loud back and forth cheering really is a big part of why I'm a fan today. My heart goes out to his family during such a painful time.
