“ Our deepest condolences to you Pam and your family, a tragic loss to be sure. Jesse, Joel and I played in the same band together for seven years or so, we had an awesome little group headlined by Jesse's lead guitar skills and golden pipes. Our musical future in the Mpls music scene was made even brighter with the addition of Greg, our awesome new sax player, only to be cut short suddenly. We had a terrific time playing over the years and I'm thankful for the time we spent together. Rock on Jesse! You will be missed.

“ Condolences to Jesse’s wife and family. My little brother is one of the Warriors, Stuart King. Jesse has been a huge support as Stuart has gone thru his cancer battle. I remember back when they graduated, Jesse’s band played at Stuart’s grad party and the cops showed up. The officer let them play for 15 more minutes. Jesse let my dad who is a drummer play and it was amazing. Watching the Warriors play, Jesse was always so funny and the brotherhood they have all shared is rare. This is a profound loss.
