“Jessie, 3 years huh? Time flies by, yet it doesn't seem to go by at all. Still seems like yesterday I received the news. I miss you more than I could ever explain, miss the idea of driving to your house to say hello, miss the walk down the stairs to your basement, miss our talks, miss your smile, I miss you. I think of you often, think of your mom, dad and brothers. I know you're in a great place and we're all taking care of each other here. I love you Jesse and always will. You always have a sweet place in my heart. I love you, Jamaica

“ Jesse, Wow, 3 years!?! It's amazing how time flies by and how slow it goes at the same time. It still seems like yesterday I received the terrible news, I remember it all too well. I can still feel the way my heart dropped. I will miss you more than I can ever explain, the idea of driving over to your house, the walk down the stairs to your basement, the talks we used to have at the park, your beautiful smile. I had a true friend in you, someone who never left my side, never judged me. You cannot be replaced, nor ever will be. I will always love you Jesse! Every day I think of you, every day I miss you. Every day of my life I will remember you and cherish those memories. Love you Jesse, Jamaica

“ My dear cuz Jess, It has taken me so long to come to terms with your loss. I'm not sure I ever will. I'm grateful I got to grow up with you and be your friend on top of being your cousin. You touched my life more than you ever knew. You were so tender, loving and warm. I missed you when you were gone and embraced you when you were here. I know you are finally happy and at peace but know that there will always be an empty place in my heart now that you are gone. I know the tears will be replaced by smiles and the pain will lessen for all of us. So many of us became closer with your passing and for that I am grateful. To Uncle Jimmy, Aunt Sandy, Christian, Nate, and Emily I love you all and you will forever be in my thoughts and prayers. Rest in Peace Jess and I will see you again. All my love your cousin Becky.

“ Our thoughts and many prayers go out to all of Jesse's family. It's been some time since I had the pleasure of Jesse's friendship, but thoughts of him will still put a smile on my face. Such an intense kid for the group we "ran" with, but fun, fun-loving and goofy too. You were always the one I saw as another of my "little brothers" even though you towered over me. Salud Jesse! To times, good, bad, goofy, and everything in between. You left your indelible mark on each of us. We thank you for it! Our hearts go out to all those he loved and was loved by in return. - Nickie & Sondra

“ Jesse you will be missed. I was just thinking about the time you, Nathan and I were all taken to the hospital. You and Nathan because you guys decided to eat your grandfather's ex-lax thinking it was chocolate. We were all miserable, but later laughed about it. I am so glad that I was able to see you a few years ago, and to see what a fine man you had become. We love you and will always miss you. Dawn

“ I have been working with the Meyers boys over the last 5 years. During this time, Christian, Jesse, Nate, Kim, & Jim all welcomed me into their family. The undeniable love and respect between them spreads to each person whose lives cross their paths. The quiet artist so talented and humble, Jesse was loved so much by his family and friends. My prayers are of you Jesse and your family during this tragic time. God needed you too soon; you will be missed and never forgotten.

“ Every once in a while you meet a good person. Every once in a great while you meet a great person. But only once in a lifetime do you meet someone that will become your brother. When I met Nate we became brothers the same day. Jess was only about 8 or 9 at the time, but that didn't stop him from tagging along. A lot of the things we did together, we probably shouldn't have. We grew up together as brothers. When Jess would smile and laugh you couldn't help but to laugh with him. Everytime Nate and I talk about the good old days we laugh until we're in tears. Sitting around in the front yard, telling all the stories about Jess, laughing and crying, made me realize just how much he ment to me and how much I will miss him. I wish I could have helped him more in his last years, or at least got to spend more time with him. It sucks anytime you lose family, I just hope I don't lose anymore. It was great to see all my family and to have them all together, I just wish this was not the reason. To all my family, we have to keep in touch more often. If you need anything at all please call... you have my number. I'll miss you Jess! and I'll see you soon little brother.

“ Uncle Jim, Aunt Sandy, Nate, Christian, and Emily: Not a day goes by that I haven't thought of you all. I find myself unable to keep with conversation. My mind wanders and takes me back to that one Christmas when we were all together, among other memories." I love you all more than there are stars in the universe." I pray for peace in your hearts, and the pain to subside. Know that we are all here if you should need a friend in this time of grief. I love you Jesse, I always have and always will. I'll see you in my time. Save a seat for a whole bunch of us because you are so very loved and have the greatest friends, and family who love you..more than there are stars in the sky and universe. He touched my soul, as I touched his. He was truly my soulmate. I hold him safely in my soul, forever. And will always remember the GREAT days we shared. Jesse, thoughts of you bring smiles to my face and laughter to my belly. I know you saw me and your dad pig out on food that we weren't suppose to eat that night... just like we use to. “ Jesse was a very unique soul. I always believed he belonged in a different time & place. Someone with his beautiful talents, caring heart & contagious smile honestly was too great for this place. He will always be my lil bro. He didn't have friendships, he made bonds. Ones that never seemed to be broken. No matter how much time had gone by you could always pick up where you had left off with him. I love him dearly & will miss him immensely as will anyone who's soul he has touched. To Sandy, Jim, Nate, Emily, Christian & Kim. Your loss is a tragic one and my heart breaks for you. You have a very large extended family here, you are not alone & my love goes to each of you. Tears, idle tears, I know not what they mean, Tears from the depth of some divine despair Rise in the heart, and gather to the eyes, In looking for the happy Autumn-fields, And thinking of the days that are no more.
