“ Jesse was my uncle. When he and my aunt divorced, I missed him terribly. I reached out to him a few times over the years and was happy to find him on Facebook. Even though we never connected, I thought of him often.

I remember the day I met Jesse when I was very young. We were in my grandparents' living room. I hid behind a chair because I was afraid of his mustache. Honestly, I can still see his smile and his laughter as he reassured me it was going to be OK.

Rest in peace, Uncle Jesse. I love you.
