“ *I am so sorry for your loss. Thinking of you makes me understand just a bit about what a wonderful caregiver your Mother must have

“ I've been thinking of you all during these last few difficult days. My prayer is that you get comfort and strength from each other, friends, and acquaintances especially tomorrow as we celebrate the gift that Jo was as a Wife, Mom, Grandma, Teacher and Friend. I see her big smile and twinkle in her eye and know that she loved and was loved.

“ Our thoughts and prayers to the Kirchers. After losing someone so very close and loved. The pain never ends, but neither do the beautiful memories. Keep those memories forever in your heart and talk about the good times as often as possible. Count each moment, not as one away from Jo, but one moment closer to being with her again. For the Bible calls death an "enemy", and God promises that he will bring it "to nothing".(1 Corinthians 15:26) This promise of God will do away with death and the pain it causes. It is my sincere hope and prayer that this will comfort your hearts.
