“Joan was a friend from our teaching days at Jefferson Elementary School in Minneapolis. One day in the teacher's lounge, we discovered that she had been a babysitter for me and my brother when we were living in Madison, MN many years before. We were both part of the book club that began at Jefferson and has continued in friendships to this day. My husband I would go out to dinner with Joan and Lowell in a German restaurant in Hastings and would stop to visit them many times on our way through Mesa spring and fall on our journey to Palm Springs CA. I have missed Joan for a long time and hope she is at peace.
