“ Jimmy and Uncle Jim. I am so sorry for the loss of Joanie, I loved when Jim and Joan would come to visit my Mom and Dad in their little Miata. It was the talk of the house. Joanie could light up a room. Her personality was a true light for us all. As time went on I would send her hand written recipes (based of course on what my Mom Elaine requested) and Rich and I even went and visited her and Jim in their paradise in the great North woods. My Mom loved her chats with Joanie and kept us all up to date with what was happening. I miss the updates for sure. I love love loved her Christmas letter/cards, they were the best part of Christmas for so long. Joanie reminded me so much of my Mom, the glue that held us all together. She will be missed.
