

JoAnn D. Davis

October 3, 1932 - October 19, 2019

JoAnn D. Davis-Lindholm

Ann was born October 3, 1932 to George and Helen (Turner) Dugger in Carbondale, Illinois. Her childhood was spent in Illinois with her mother and grandparents (Thaddeus and Julia Turner) and a few years in California where her mother taught school. Ann moved back to Springfield IL to attend high school. She was named Miss Springfield Illinois at the Illinois State fair on August 13, 1951. In young adulthood, Ann attended the Katharine Gibbs School in Chicago and secured her first full-time job there at Encyclopedia Britannica. Ann worked at the state capital in Illinois for a long time. She met and married her first husband in Chicago, they moved to Minneapolis for his job and raised their three sons in Bloomington, Scott, Paul, and Andy. Ann went on to work for many years and retired from the business office at Fairview Southdale Hospital. She enjoyed time spent with her sons and friends. Ann met and married her second husband, Frank Lindholm in March 2019. They loved, enjoyed, and treasured one another deeply.

Ann is preceded in death by her parents, George and Helen Dugger; grandparents, Thaddeus and Julia Turner; son, Andy; and best friend Sue Anderson.

Ann is survived by her husband, Frank Lindholm; sons, Scott of Oregon, and

Paul of Arizona; Frank's son Dan (Julie) and daughter, Amy; and close friends, Marilyn Paulson and Joyce Berg; as well as many loving family and friends.

“ Sweet Aunt Annie, she was in our lives for a few short years and we loved her. Fun memories of her and Frank coming to the family reunions and other family events. We must have passed the test because she married Uncle Frank and became part of the Lindholm family! Our hearts are sad for your loss. Weren't we blessed to have her in our lives, though.
