“ *Dear Randy and all who grieve,
We are saddened to read of our dear cousin dying. You have our sympathy as we too recall the beauty and sweetness of this woman of God. Many times we have been blessed by her beautiful singing voice. My uncle Joel's celebration of life service being the last time. Now she is singing a new song face to face with her Jesus! Rejoicing for her, 'sorrowing' for all those who love her. Blessings Randy. Our love, Harlan and Judy Berger (David's 1st cousin).*

“ Joanne was one of sweetest persons I've known. She was supposed to sing at my wedding, but was unable to, as it was soon after her very bad car accident in 1972. At that time she was married to my cousin David N. Brown, who was killed in that accident. My deepest sympathy goes out to you Randy, and to your family.

“ Randy, Ben Melinda and Emily, I am so blessed and honored to have known Jo. Her joy for life in the midst of chronic pain has always inspired me. So glad she is free to dance and sing with the angels, but also sad for you in your grief. Praying for you all.
