“ You beat us to the heavenly city, John... and the choir of angels. You've been such a lot in our thoughts and prayers over this past year. As hard as it is for your family--and especially Cindy--to be separated from you for awhile, you're in that land where there's no more tears, no more pain... face to face with Christ our Savior. And someday, we'll join you there, John. You're with your dear little Joyleigh. We had some happy times of making music together... and I looked forward to your return to choir. God bless you, Cindy; may God strengthen and guide you through this difficult time, and help you to know His presence. You and your family are in our prayers. See you Thursday.

Most of my memories of John are of our childhood when dad would bring us to Iowa to visit the Andrew side of our family. We only reconnected by phone and email or text over the last 4 years. I will miss him. He had a sweet spirit and a wonderful sense of humor. I am saddened by his passing but I know the Angels are rejoicing! Love you John, your cousin Rory
