

John E. Castor

September 29, 2012

Castor, John Edward was born in Rochester, MN, on December 4, 1921 to Harry and Grace (Moonan) Castor. He died on September 29, 2012 at his residence in Minneapolis, MN. He will be greatly missed by his loving wife of 58 years, Margie (Margaret Grobe); brother, Peter Castor; sister-in-law, Elaine Castor; brother- and sister-in-law, Richard and Arlene Grob; and several extended family members, and neighbors. John's passion for the law made him an energetic and involved attorney, and he was respected as a man of integrity who truly believed in helping his fellow man. He was an avid outdoorsman and hunter, and always had at least one dog at his side. John kept his body and mind active enjoying several hobbies such as automobiles, woodworking, and fixing anything that needed fixing. He served in the Marines during WWII, and will be laid to rest at Fort Snelling in a private family service on October 22, 2012.

Tribute Wall

PO

“ Pierre Ostor lit a candle in memory of John E. Castor

Pierre Ostor - May 11, 2013 at 05:41 AM